Real Estate

Be the remote 24/7 real estate agent who is always responsive and always ready to your client needs

Use Textlocal to service clients better while they make one of the most important investment decision of their lives—buying or renting property

Introduction

Use Textlocal to go beyond a simple SMS alert on a new property. Entice customers with photographs, layouts and location maps of the property. Send a slew of reminders to existing clients on payment alerts to construction updates. Reach anyone in any part of India, by making the most of Textlocal's regional language options.

Show and sell

Looking to improve sales? Send images of the property with its location and even its layout via SMS to your customers. Textlocal allows you to insert attachments and web URLs, so you can even send them a purchase or lease agreement.

It's automatic

Now send personalized reminders automatically on everything from the rent to maintenance dues and payment receipts by integrating your CRM with Textlocal APIs.

Expand your opt-in database

Promote your keywords, short codes and long codes on different media and get prospective customers reach out to you for more information or to receive a call back.

Be alert to customer needs

Online portals can send an alert to buyers and sellers when a property matches their needs. This can be for an enquiry or even a transaction.

Speak to everyone in their language

Send regional language SMS using our incredibly easy transliteration tool. Alternatively, craft and send mobile-optimized webpages in any language to customers in any part of the country.

Empower field agents

Field agents can conduct campaigns or send alerts on the move using Textlocal's mobile app. Use Textlocal's multi-user enterprise account to control the tone and quality of the communication, and monitor their activity.

Be seamlessly responsive

Wow prospects and customers by instantly sending information they seek via an SMS. Auto-respond with pricing information, construction photos, site plan or other information via SMS or email and make the experience seamless and instant.

Instant feedback

Gather feedback from your customers using Textlocal surveys and data collection forms. Survey responses can be viewed in elegant graphs on our UI or can be downloaded to Excel.
